

Urban League awarded $100,000 housing grant

St. Louis Business Journal

Friday, October 5, 2007

The Urban League of Metropolitan St. Louis was awarded a $100,000 grant by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) to help reduce housing discrimination, the Urban League said Friday.

"This grant will help us to continue to educate the public and the housing industry about their rights and responsibilities under the Fair Housing Act," Kim Kendrick, HUD's assistant secretary for Fair Housing and Equal Opportunity, said in a statement.

The Urban League of Metropolitan St. Louis and its 105 national affiliates work together to advocate and serve African Americans and others in the struggle for equal rights in employment, housing, education and community outreach.