

Urban League receives $25,000 grant from AT&T

4/17/08

AT&T awarded the Urban League of Metropolitan St. Louis Inc. a $25,000 grant to ensure St. Louis residents receive experience and information to succeed in the technology market, AT&T said Thursday.

The grant will support the implementation and incorporation of the Wireless Technology Training Program into the Urban League's existing Business Training Center.

San Antonio-based AT&T Inc. (NYSE: T) provides local and long-distance telephone and Internet service in Missouri and Illinois.
