Enterprise Rent-A-Car donated $25,000 to support employment programs at the Urban League of Metropolitan St. Louis, the Urban League said Wednesday.

Each year, the Urban League Employment Department helps more than 2,200 individuals find jobs through referrals, career fairs and recruiting events.

The Urban League of Metropolitan St. Louis is a contemporary civil rights and social service agency that provides a holistic approach to helping people achieve economic self-sufficiency.

Enterprise Rent-A-Car is the largest privately held company in St. Louis with more than $9 billion in 2006 revenue.
